Old Business:

Finals & Year End Update: finals buckles have arrived. Still taking suggestions on year end awards and vendors. Stacie Adams reported the sample denim jackets will be at finals for members to try on. Motion to look at hats for awards as well by Kassie Adams, 2nd by Brett Seastrom. Youth board to design and agree on logo for hats.

Vendors for Finals: Chris Dame not present, Brayden reported on his behalf that he thinks we have around 4-5 vendors signed up.

Scholarship Applications: Stephanie Newell/Chad Chambers/Travis Long have not received any applications as of date. Stephanie would like to extend the scholarship application deadline to finals and open the applications to any senior that graduated in May 2015 AND any senior graduating May 2016. This would keep the scholarships in sync with our rodeo schedule. Motion by Stephanie Newell to extend this deadline and include the senior members graduating in 2017, 2nd by Travis Long. Motion passed. Stephanie will email all senior members this applies to.

Finals Agenda: Youth board will hold a costume contest, kickball in arena, and dance at the end of the evening. Travis Long will contact chili vendor for all families. Saturday will be our 'PINK OUT' themed rodeo.

New Business:

Meeting with Chute Dogging, Mounted Dummy Roping contestants, parents, and judges before finals to clarify any rules that were not clear before. Stephanie or Stacie will also make a flyer to hang at finals to clarify.

Brian Adams submitted finals bid of $3200.00 on behalf of Jason Fillmore, DS Bucking Bulls, and Milliron A Farms. Motion to approve bid by Doug Reser, 2nd by Bret Seastrom. Bid is approved.

Additions to Agenda:

Stacie asked for clarification regarding CYRA paying for horse stalls for our pick up men & judges. Motion for CYRA to pay for one stall per pick up man and one stall for the judge horse by Travis Long, 2nd by Bronc Reser. Motion passed

Milliron A, Jason Fillmore, and DS Bucking Bulls will also sponsor 3 year end

Motion to adjourn at 9:25 by Travis Long, 2nd by Bronc Reser. Motion passed.
